LifePath Hospice receives generous donation from Ruskin Moose Lodge

TAMPA – LifePath Hospice was the recipient of a $3,500 donation from Moose Lodge # 813 in Ruskin. The donation was made at a March 7 check presentation ceremony at the Moose Lodge at 1212 Shell Point Road in Ruskin.

The donation is the proceeds from a January 31 event at the lodge, where more than 200 people paid $6.50 for a beef tips dinner. In addition, event organizers generated more funds from a raffle and a “pass-the-hat” collection.

“LifePath Hospice is appreciative of the support we’ve received from the Ruskin Moose Lodge,” said Liz Anderson, LifePath Hospice director, annual giving. “This gift will help LifePath Hospice deliver compassionate end-of-life care throughout Hillsborough County.”

As a not-for-profit agency, LifePath Hospice depends on the generosity of organizations like the Ruskin Moose Lodge to be able to provide ongoing community programs, such as children’s grief support services, caregiver services and hospice care for the uninsured.
