DATE: June 1, 2009

Fenn Giles and Trish Melech named to LifePath Hospice board of directors

TAMPA – Tampa businessman Fenn Giles and local hospice supporter Trish Melech were elected to the LifePath Hospice board of directors. The election was held at the organizations annual meeting May 12.

Giles is the president Florida Investment Advisors, a subsidiary of The Tampa Banking Company. Melech is a long-time supporter of LifePath Hospice. In 2005, Melech and her husband Paul made a significant contribution to fund the construction of the LifePath Hospice House in Temple Terrace. In recognize that generous donation, the organization named the facility the Melech Hospice House in their honor.

About LifePath Hospice

*LifePath Hospice is a community-based, not-for-profit organization that supports and serves nearly 1,200 patients each day in Hillsborough County as they face the challenges of life-limiting illnesses. Healthcare professionals and trained volunteers embrace the LifePath Hospice mission to make the most of life by relieving the suffering of patients and their families affected by end-of-life issues. The organization is a 2008 recipient of a Circle of Life Citation of Honor Award, which celebrates innovation in palliative and end-of-life care. LifePath Hospice is accredited by the Joint Commission, the nation's premier healthcare accrediting agency.
