Roxanne Riley joins LifePath Hospice as executive director

TAMPA – LifePath Hospice, Inc. has named Roxanne Riley, BSN, MPA, MDiv, executive director of the organization, effective August 10. In her role as executive director, Riley will oversee an organization that provides end-of-life care to approximately 1,200 patients each day in Hillsborough County.

Riley replaces Cheryl Hamilton, who has taken a position as vice president of business development with HPC Healthcare, Inc. HPC Healthcare is the not-for-profit parent organization of LifePath Hospice.

Riley most recently worked as a health care consultant. She has held executive positions with HPC Healthcare, Inc. in Tampa and Hospice of Southwest Florida in Sarasota.

Riley earned her bachelor of science degree in Nursing from Mount Saint Mary's College in Los Angeles. She also holds a master's degree in Divinity from Emma Curtis Hopkins College and Theological Seminary in Clearwater and a master's degree in Public Administration/Health Care Services from the University of San Francisco. Riley is also an ordained Unity minister.

About LifePath Hospice

LifePath Hospice is a community-based, not-for-profit organization that supports and serves approximately 1,200 patients each day in Hillsborough County as they face the challenges of life-limiting illnesses. Healthcare professionals and trained volunteers embrace the LifePath Hospice mission to make the most of life by relieving the suffering of patients and their families affected by end-of-life issues. The organization is a 2008 recipient of a Circle of Life Citation of Honor Award, which celebrates innovation in palliative and end-of-life care. LifePath Hospice is accredited by the Joint Commission, the nation's premier healthcare accrediting agency. For more information, visit the LifePath Hospice website at www.lifepath-hospice.org
